Aldila makes it 6 victories in last 7 Nationwide Tour events
'Hottest Shafts in Golf' also win wood, hybrid shaft counts at Miccosukee Championship

POWAY, Calif. – The winner of the Miccosukee Championship in Miami, Fla. won using Aldila's NV hybrid shafts making it six wins for Aldila in the last seven Nationwide Tour events. The victor moved to No. 13 on the Nationwide Tour money list and into the Top 25 which guarantees his very first PGA Tour card.

The Miccosukee Champion, armed with his Aldila shafts, will compete against 59 others in next week's season-ending Tour Championship at the Barona Creek Golf Club in Lakeside, Calif.

Aldila also won the wood shaft and hybrid shaft manufacturer counts at Miccosukee Championship.

The Aldila NV™ features exclusive aerospace materials and incorporates Aldila's exclusive Micro Laminate Technology™ that provides the players enhanced power, consistent flex and precise feel. The dampening advantages of the Micro Laminate Technology have eliminated distracting and destructive "shock". The result is a slim, stable design that maximizes distance, improves accuracy and offers the "perfect feel" the NV is famous for. The Aldila NV is available for woods and irons in a variety of weights and tip sizes.

According to the Darrell Survey U.S. National Consumer Survey, Aldila was the leading graphite shaft manufacturer for new drivers, fairway woods and hybrid clubs for 2006.
