LPGA's #1 player claims ADT Championship using Aldila's VS Proto™

Third place at ADT lifts Aldila Advisory Staff member to third on Money List

POWAY, Calif. – Using Aldila's VS Proto™, the number one player in the world capped off an eight-win season with a two-shot victory at the 2007 ADT Championship in West Palm Beach, Fla. With Sunday's win she earned $1 million to finish the season at the top of the Money List with $4,364,994.

In addition to her eight wins, she statistically dominated this year's Tour leading in rounds under par; greens in regulation, top-10 finishes; birdies; and shared the lead in putts per round. She is the Rolex Player of the Year, the winner of the Vare Trophy (scoring average), and was the third-ranked player in eagles and driving distance.

Not only did Aldila garner a first place at the ADT Championship, but they captured third too as Advisory Staff Member Paula Creamer, using Aldila's NVS in her driver and 3-wood, followed up last week's win with a third place finish at the ADT. Creamer closed out 2007 finishing third on the Money List with $1,384,798; second in scoring average; second in rounds under par; second in Top 10 finishes; and third in the Rolex Player of the Year standings.

The VS Proto™ shaft incorporates Aldila's innovative new Next Generation Micro Laminate Technology™ featuring Carbon Nano-tubes, combined with Aldila's proprietary A65 Performance Resin System, using advanced ultra high modulus graphite fibers, all synthesized into Micro Laminate Technology™ unparalleled performance and feel.

The Aldila NVS features the same unmatched performance and incredible feel of the original NV but with a higher launch. While the NV is a tip-stiff, low launch shaft, the NVS features a more responsive tip for those seeking a higher ball flight.
